In times of sickness many people find they cannot pray. They desperately want to, but they are so tired, worried, or fearful that prayer just wont work for them. Do You Want To Be Well Again? is written to make prayer possible at these times. It is in a simple form - a story of healing, demonstrating Jesus care for the sick; a reflection on how we can find this story in our own story of life; a prayer; a psalm from the Scriptures. If the sick person cannot read this for her or himself, then someone else can read it to bring Christ into this very special moment. Whether we are ill ourselves or close to somebody who is suffering this book offers spiritual sustenance in our time of need.
