

The Ball and the Cross (Xist Classics)

When Christianity and Atheism Collide What is the good of words if they arent important enough to quarrel over? Why do we choose one word more than another if there isnt any difference between them? If you called a woman a chimpanzee instead of an angel, wouldnt there be a quarrel about a word? If youre not going to argue about words, what are you going to argue about? Are you going to convey your meaning to me by moving your ears? The Church and the heresies always used to fight about words, because they are the only thing worth fighting about. - G.K. Chesterton, The Ball and the Cross

The Ball and the Cross by G.K. Chesterton is a philosophical and religious novel that centers around two main characters with opposite views of the world: one is Professor Lucifer, a convinced atheist and other Monk Michael, a Christian apologist. The two engage in a debate about God and materialism. Is there a right or wrong, a black or white?
