

Creating a Masterpiece

This is a sweet short story of an artist who in 7 days creates a masterpiece, each day adding new colors and life his picture . It is a retelling of the story of creation with God as the artist the world comes to life. Long before colors even existed there was an artist who wanted to paint his masterpiece. Long before colors even existed there was a great Artist who wanted to paint. One day he decided to paint his masterpiece. This was no easy task because there were no colors. He said to himself, if I think it so it will be. He thought and he thought and there appeared a canvas and 2 palettes. This was the start of his masterpiece. It needs more he said to himself, it needs colors. He thought and he thought and he made black and white. At the end of the day he put away his things. He was happy but still his picture was not finished.
