

G-TRAX Devos: Whats in a Leader: Part 1 Footprints (Whats in a Leader)

In this world, the word servant and the word leader are considered total opposites. Unfortunately, the word servant has sort of a bad image associated with it. A servant is someone who gets walked on. Most leaders would not even think about being a servant to others. This was true even back in Jesus time. The Pharisees and Teachers of the Law would never consider being a servant to those around them. In fact, they expected others to serve them. But Jesus came to earth to show them and us how a real leader should act. Everything about Him revolved around serving others. He was never focused on Himself. What does Jesus say about being the greatest in Luke 9:46-48? Probably the most difficult thing about being a leader is to get out of the normal selfish mode in which us human-type-peoples tend to be stuck. In order to become an effective leader-type person, you need to begin thinking about others, not just when its convenient or when you have to, but all of the time. It needs to become a part of you. It must be such a part of you that you dont think twice about it. We all look to Jesus as the ultimate example of what a servant looks like.
