

Dealing With Anger Handbook: A Step-By-Step Guide For The Helping Professional

This comprehensive and practical guide is recommended for both beginning and seasoned practitioners seeking a client-centered approach for helping others understand and experience success in dealing with problematic anger. This handbook offers a rare blend of practical experience and theoretical knowledge, exploring a broad range of anger scenarios—family, self, public, relationship, and workplace. A companion to the resource, Dealing With Anger Workbook, this essential resource provides a step-by-step guide for professionals and contains over 90 exercises for working with children, teens, and adults in one-to-one settings, or as a springboard for group discussion, or workshop forum.
