

Princess daily devotional

A timely and interactive work. Lady Rochelle Lockhart has captured the essence of a young lady and the myriad of encounters that they face in the world today. There is a great need for young ladies to be affirmed. There are so many voices and opinions that speak to young ladies about who they should be like and what they should do, the Princess daily devotional helps them to discover exactly who they are from God's perspective. Young people need to be encouraged to search within to discover the purpose of their design and to learn from the examples of others who have gone before. This resource is a must have for every Young lady to help them discover the Princess within.
