Excerpt: ... second, the establishment of a National Highway System; third, that the present Federal aid to the States be continued. It is as follows:-Whereas, The President of the United States in a message to Congress recognized the value of improved highways in the general transportation system of the nation and definitely recommended and urged their rapid development, and Whereas, We recognize the necessity for a well-defined and connected system of improved highways in order to expedite the distribution of large volumes of foodstuffs now wasted on account of the lack of prompt and adequate highway transportation and to better serve the economic needs of the country; Therefore, Be It, Resolved, That a Federal Highways Commission be created to promote and guide this powerful economic development of both highways and highway traffic and establish a national highway system. Resolved, That the present appropriation of Federal Aid to the States be continued and increased and the States urged to undertake extensiv% highway construction, in order to keep pace with the development of this country and its transportation needs, and in carrying out the provisions of the present Federal Aid Act, or any amendments thereto, that the State Highway Department shall co-operate with the Federal Highway Commission. Be It Further Resolved, That all Governmental activities with respect to highways be administered by the Federal Highway Commission. It was voted that the resolution be adopted. Mr. Re1d--The next one is as follows: Whereas, Our Country is at the present time suffering and being inconvenienced by the excessive high cost of living, and, Whereas, It is our belief that every movement having for its object the reduction of the hours of labor and the lessening of the amount of...
