

The Pattern & The Glory: The New Testament Pattern for the Glorious End-Time Church

The Pattern & The Glory is a practical guide for local churches of all sizes to follow in order to setup proper church government. God promised that He would pour out His Spirit in the last days. The Church needs to be ready to receive the glory. This is accomplished by following the pattern of the New Testament Church. In addition to Qualifications and Job Descriptions for Elders and Deacons the following subjects are included: Five-Fold Ministry When Leaders Fall Into Sin Authority and Submission What About Women? Sheep, Goats and Wolves These any many other topics are covered in this 168-page book, complete with study guide questions. This book is a must for pastors of non-denominational churches, as well as all five-fold ministers, elders, deacons and anyone hungry for the Word of God. About the Author: David Chapman is the Lead Pastor at The River in Safford, Arizona. He has a passion to teach Gods Word and train believers to do the works of the ministry. David was called into the ministry in 1989 and has pastored churches in four different states. He had the privilege of sitting under the ministry of Dr. Lester Sumrall for many years.
