

Worship, Preaching, & The Ministry of Prayer

Whats missing in your service of worship? How do you honor God and engage his people? How do you properly construct a service of worship? What does God want us to include, and how do we put it all together in a way that reflects his majesty? This inspired and inspiring distillation of wisdom, practice, history, theology, and above all Scripture as it pertains to worship, preaching and prayer is essential reading for every pastor and worship leader. This book will undoubtedly deepen your understanding of why, Who, and how we worship, enriching, informing and transforming how you and your community live and worship together. About the Author: The Rev. Dr. Hughes Oliphant Old is the Dean of the Institute for Reformed Worship at Erskine Theological Seminary in South Carolina. He has degrees from Princeton Theological Seminary and the University off Neuch?tel in Switzerland. Before entering the world of writing, Old served for many years as a Presbyterian minister. His unique perspective as both pastor and theologian has helped him write many useful books for the contemporary church. These include Worship: Reformed According to Scripture (Westminster John Knox), and more recently his seven-volume series The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church (Eerdmans, 1998-2010).
