

TRUTHBOMBS 101 MORE TIPS I WANT TO TEACH MY KIDS: A Parents Advice to children

The second volume of Truthbombs contains more tips and parenting advice for kids. Not on how to be a better parent, but how to be a better person. Kids learn by watching. How else would you explain my sons love of hunting and fishing, two hobbies I dont do, but his stepfather does. Or my daughters love, and I use that term loosely, of running, my particular addiction. Parents love their kids and are always sharing advice. But what if junior or missy isnt listening? Are you a parent? Do you know one? Im a father of three and I started capturing things I said to my children, little nuggets of advice and wisdom and compiled them all into 4 volumes of TRUTHBOMBS: THINGS I WANT TO TEACH MY KIDS. Our job is to create responsible people for the next generation and teaching ethics, values and setting a good example are just a few of the ways we do it. Along the way, our little monkeys watch us to pick up habits and mannerisms that sometimes drive us crazy!

Each guide is a fast paced quick read, perfect for the busy parent on the go and sure to make you nod your head and say, I know, right. I think its what each of us hopes to do as a parent. If you have a nugget to add, Im finalizing volume 4 and would love to include you in it; your advice, along with city and name. Find my email contact at the front of the book and email me your tidbit or story. The print version of this book will be available soon. Get a free copy of all 404 TIPS when you sign up to my reader list, and Ill keep in touch to let you know when you can buy the paperback to give as a gift. Im working to keep the paperback price below $10 so you can grab a couple of copies for expectant parents, or for kids graduation gifts.
